OPENING THE DOORS OF INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

★ Supporting organisation

Young ICCA, founded in 2010, is the world's leading international arbitration knowledge and skills network for young practitioners and students, operating under the auspices of the International Council for Commercial Arbitration (ICCA). With over 20,000 members worldwide, it is dedicated to fostering excellence in international arbitration through education, debate, and mentorship. Young ICCA connects emerging professionals with peers and experienced mentors, offering training workshops, structured mentorship programs, and forums for debate and professional dialogue. Its core mission is to introduce new practitioners from all corners of the globe to the field of international arbitration, and to support their professional development.
